As we are all alone today in our little shack and no one to bother us we will spend a few of our lonesome moments in writing to the Herald.

We are having some fine weather here at present.

Plowing and planting is the order of the day here at present.

Sickness is unknown to this part except headache and it only comes about once a month to the boys, but would come oftener if we were paid by the week instead of the month.

Willis Maxwell and Lee Allen visited the B. S. Boys a few nights ago.

Arthur Lee has quit chewing tobacco and gone to eating grass.

Odill Morgan hasn't slept any since April 8.

Charley Maxwell turned his boy out on the grass to graze first of the month and he is doing fine and weighs 4½ pounds now, and said he would name him between this and July 4th, so look out some of you Herald writers may get a name-sake.

Walter Sadler went to Coalinga last week on a business trip.

Geo. Stafford said if anybody wrote to him to please put their return on the top of the envelope.

Luke Dennis said he was going opossum hunting in July or August.

Granville Lawless sends his best regards to old man Cason at G. B.

Girls, our birthday is the 2nd of June and we would enjoy getting a card from you all. If you don't know our names ask your postmaster or address the Two B. S. Boys, Oilfield, Calif., Box 175. We will be sweet sixteen and never been kissed, so girls don't think we are feeding you taffy for we are not that kind of boys, this is straight goods.

Walter Botts said if he stayed in California much longer he would be the champion dish washer in the oilfields.

Huby Young said if he ever got back home again it would take more than his "pap's" shot gun and hounds to get him to leave any more.

Fred Whiteaker, Fowler Lynn and Leo Swearengen are thinking about leaving for old Mexico in a few days.

Walter Burris sold 1 dozen opossum hides last Saturday for $7.90.

Marlin Stafford of near Gainesboro left Coalinga a few weeks ago and didn't as much as tell the the boys good bye.

Itching piles provoke profanity, but profanity won't cure them. Doan's Ointment cures itching, bleeding or protruding piles after years of suffering. At any drug store.

Mr. Editor, will you let me come in this beautiful spring day and talk with my friends and relatives.

Wish very much I could see you all one more time in this life but don't guess I can. I will have to meet you all in heaven.

Well, Mollie, why don't you write to us, and also to the Herald. Yes, I wish you would have a dream every week to write to the Herald.

Father, come on with your letters I like to read them as you wont write to us. We would be glad if you would come to see us this summer, and we will go to camp meetings.

Alpheus, don't you aim to write any more? Wish you would.

Almeda, I enjoyed reading your letters. I learned to love you when I was small.

Come on, D. P. Peek, with your good letters from the west.

Maniza, did you get that package I sent you? Please write and tell me.

A barn and two fine horses of Mr. Pace's burned the other day; also Mr. Gardener's house.

I want to ask all my relatives in different states to send me a birthday card, and anyone else who wants to. I will be 40 years of age the 18th of May. I often think of my relatives and wish I could see them. Newton Judd, that is your birthday to and I will expect a card from you.

OBITUARY OF JAMES GUY HARP

Mr. James Guy Harp departed this life April 27, 1911, after one week's illness of pneumonia. On Thursday morning, one week before his death, he was taken very suddenly and violently with this dreadful disease, and although everything possible was done by a skilled physician and loving friends to restore him to health, it was our Heavenly Father's plan to take him home to heaven.

He was a faithful and devoted husband and father, and although he wanted to remain with his loved ones he was prepared and perfectly reconciled to go home to Jesus when the summons came to him. He had accepted Christ as his Saviour and he has gone to his reward.

The funeral was held at the Provo Methodist Church and many friends attended to extend their loving sympathy to the bereft widow and the four fatherless children.

MRS. GRACE G. METTLER.

Hope you are all well. We are still moving along with time though in this part rains are light. Oats are about past redemption as the showers that do come are too light to last. The water has not run in the branches and ditches since the war though gardens are very good.

I wish you fellows back there where it is raining so much would quit cutting stovewood for a while and maybe it would move this way as it seems we are in a dry streak but it is said this is always a way for the lame and lazy so we will get through.

The pastures are good and stock looks well. J. J. BYERS.
